VERDE COMPLIANCE PARTNERS OFFERS CANNABIS REGULATION INSIGHTS DIRECT TO YOUR INBOX
State of the Plant - the newsletter from the only federal legislation experts

Cleveland, OH – National cannabis regulatory consulting firm Verde Compliance Partners, LLC, has launched a new newsletter covering the looming federal regulation of cannabis in the United States. “State of the Plant” will hit your inbox every few weeks, keeping you up to speed on the latest federal cannabis regulatory proposals, and court activity, while also linking you with experts who analyze and clarify what this means to growers, processors, dispensaries, and cannabis service providers.

Each edition is produced by Verde experts, creating a one-stop resource for all your cannabis compliance questions. With decades of experience in alcohol and tobacco regulation, Verde’s team prides itself on being subject matter experts when it comes to governmental compliance. Applying its expertise in the fields of federal alcohol and tobacco regulation, Verde’s team guides cannabis industry businesses, and prepares them for coming changes and regulations. Verde’s extensive network and relationships with national players in the federal cannabis industry, and regulatory agencies offers a perspective on the regulatory process unparalleled in the nation.

“With more than eighty years of combined experience, no one understands federal compliance of highly regulated industries like we do,” said Verde’s executive director Harry Bernstein. “State of the Plant” provides a clear analysis of the unfolding regulatory proposals, relying on our knowledge of, and experience with the United States Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF), as well as the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) – the agencies that will be handling federal cannabis regulation and compliance.”
